Dear Katsuya:

Congratulations! You have been selected to receive a 2006 SAE Excellence in Oral Presentation Award.

This award recognizes speakers who gave outstanding presentations during one of SAE's meetings. Your presentation was evaluated by your peers in attendance at the technical session. This program is designed to maintain the high quality of standards associated with SAE technical meetings. Therefore, you are to be commended for helping SAE maintain these high standards.

In your case, you are receiving this award in recognition of your presentation entitled "Deployment of Global Kanban System" at the Aerospace Manufacturing and Automated Fastening Conference and Exhibition.

Again, my sincere congratulations to you!

Sincerely,

Bob Kornrumpf
